

Agricultural Society of South Carolina records, 1785- SCHS 251.00

Description: ca. 14 linear ft.

Creator: Agricultural Society of South Carolina.

Historical Note: Organized in Charleston, S.C. as the South-Carolina Society for Promoting and Improving Agricultural, and Other Rural Concerns, the society was incorporated in 1795 as the Agricultural Society of South Carolina

Scope and Content: Records consist of correspondence, financial records, minute books, scrapbooks, printed material, photographs, rolls, and other items. Correspondence and topical files include materials such as membership records, by-laws, resolutions, scholarship applications, and receipts, and are filed alphabetically by topic. Financial records include financial statements; treasurers' reports; a cash book (1885-1923); account books; a mortgage account book (1948-1958); and dues books. Minute books (bound volumes beginning 1825) chiefly contain minutes of Executive Committee meetings and annual meetings. Included are two typewritten volumes (1936) of minutes (1825-1860; 1880-1935) transcribed as a W.P.A. project. Miscellaneous items include certificates, clippings, invitations, and a membership file. Photographs depict meetings and officers of the Agricultural Society, exhibits at the Charleston Agricultural and Industrial Fair, farm scenes, farmers' markets, livestock, and other related subjects. Photograph albums include "Grapes by the Ton : A Trip to the Muscadine (Scuppernong) Country of North Carolina" (1950); "A Trip to Florida" (1950), mainly concerning cattle ranching; and the "Charleston County Pasture Tour, 1951."

Printed material consists of books, pamphlets, periodicals, and brochures. Included are issues of "The Southern Agriculturist" (1828-1832). Roll books (1871-1960) note membership status, deaths, and dues paid.

Scrapbooks include a volume (1927) documenting a European trip of W. McLeod Frampton, J. Allison Lawton, and G. Chalmers McDermid; a scrapbook (1929) containing photographs and other material pertaining to experiments with potash fertilizer in South Carolina; and scrapbooks (1934-1956) concerning the Charleston Agricultural and Industrial Fair.

Preferred Citation: Agricultural Society of South Carolina. Records, 1785- (251.00) South Carolina Historical Society.
