

Church of the Resurrection records, 1909-2013 SCHS 507.00

Creator: Church of the Resurrection (Greenwood, S.C.)

Description: 9 linear ft. (22 boxes)

Biographical/Historical note: The Episcopal Church of the Resurrection, a parish of the Episcopal Diocese of Upper South Carolina, was established in Greenwood, South Carolina, in 1892. Its first church building, which was consecrated in 1896, burned in 1909 and was rebuilt and reopened in 1911. The second church was later demolished, and the present church building was consecrated in 1939.

Scope and content: Records consist of vestry minutes and correspondence, annual parish meeting reports, parish yearbooks, sermons, parish newsletters, as well as records of church organizations (mostly minutes and yearbooks) including the Woman's Auxiliary (later Episcopal Churchwomen), altar guilds, the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, and the Order of the Daughters of the King. Miscellaneous church records include notes and correspondence relating to the archives and history of the parish, stewardship canvass records, centennial celebration records, building committee records, church histories and constitutions, newspaper clippings, church directories, financial records, Foundation Campaign records, rector search records, specifications for a rectory (n.d.), audiovisual material, and a few photographs.

Provenance: Gift of creator; 2014.023
