

Coburn family papers, 1831-1897
SCHS 1017.00
Container 11/106

Creator: Coburn family

Description: 52 Items.

Biographical/Historical note: Peter K. Coburn (d. 1872) was a railroad officer in Summerville, South Carolina. Robert Peter Coburn was an executor of his father's estate and was appointed by the family to sell lands belonging to John Coburn's estate.

Scope and Content: Papers include letters, bonds, slave bills of sale (1841-1863), a bill of sale (1831) for land in Summerville, and Peter K. Coburn's estate papers. They also include Peter Coburn's report cards (1848) from the Charleston Neck High School, a letter (1834) from his sister, Caroline A. Woods of New Haven, Conn. concerning family matters, a copy of the will (1848) of Ann Coburn, another sister, and Robert Peter Coburn's land records (1873-1897) as family attorney for the estate of John Coburn.

Note: Formerly known as: Coburn, Peter. Papers, 1831-1897.

Preferred Citation: Coburn family. Coburn family papers, 1831-1897. (1017.00) South Carolina Historical Society.

Search terms:

Coburn, Ann -- Will.
Coburn, John -- Estate.
Coburn, Peter K., d. 1872 -- Estate.
Coburn, Robert Peter, 1837-1902.
Coburn family.
Woods, Caroline A.
Charleston Neck High School (S.C.)
Decedents' estates -- South Carolina.
Slave bills of sale -- South Carolina.
Slaves -- South Carolina.
South Carolina -- History -- Sources.
Genre Letters (correspondence).
Estate records.
Wills.

11/106/1-5

Charlestonian. Letters, bonds, many bills of sale of slaves (1841-1863), bill of sale for land in Summerville (1831) and elsewhere and estate papers of Peter K. Coburn. Also Peter K. Coburn's report card from Charleston Neck High School (1848). A letter (1838) from Caroline A. Woods, New Haven, CT regarding family matters. Also will of Ann Coburn (1848) and land papers of Robert P. Coburn (1872-1897).