

Elias Horry Frost papers, 1852-1892
SCHS 1031.00
Container 11/139

Creator: Frost, Elias H.

Description: 26 items.

Biographical/Historical Note: Charleston (S.C.) businessman. He was the son of Judge Edward Frost (1801-1868) and Harriet Horry. Dr. Henry R. Frost (1795-1866) was the brother of Edward Frost.

Scope and Content: Papers consist of stock certificates and other items.

Stock certificates (1856-1892) are for shares in various companies including the State Bank of South Carolina, the Blue Ridge Rail-Road Company in South Carolina and other railroad companies, the Calhoun Insurance Company, the Charleston Oil Manufacturing Company, Lucas and Richardson Company, the Stono Phosphate Works, and others.

Other items include receipts; a deed of gift (1852) for a slave (a boy named Sam) given by Anna C. Lesesne to her son-in-law Henry R. Frost; and two slave bills of sale (1857, 1860) for slaves sold to Henry R. Frost in Charleston (S.C.).

Preferred Citation: Frost, Elias Horry, 1827-1897. Elias Horry Frost papers, 1852-1892. (1031.00) South Carolina Historical Society.

Search terms:

Frost, Elias Horry, 1827-1897.

Frost, Henry Rutledge, 1795-1866.

Slaves -- South Carolina.

Charleston (S.C.) -- History.

South Carolina -- Commerce.

South Carolina -- History.

Genre Receipts.

Slave bills of sale.

Stock certificates.

Subject Businessmen.

Container list:

11/139/1-3 Frost, Edward H., 1801-1868

Papers, 1852-1892. 25 items

Charleston railroad executive. Stock certificates (1856-1892) for phosphate mining, manufacturing, and railroad companies. Bill of sale for slaves (1852-1860) and receipts (1864) of H.R. Frost.