Creator: Gourdin family.

Description: 1.5 linear ft.

Biographical/Historical note: South Carolina family. Samuel Gourdin (1766-1821) was the owner of Buck Hall Plantation on the Cooper River (S.C.). His children included Rebecca Ann Gourdin (1805-1881), Henry Gourdin (1804-1879), and Dr. Theodore Gourdin. Rebecca Ann Gourdin married Rev. Thomas J. Young (1803-1852); their son was Henry Edward Young (1831-1918), a Charleston, S.C. attorney. Dr. Theodore Gourdin (d. 1859), a physician of Georgetown, S.C., married Elizabeth Frances Allston (d. 1834), daughter of Dr. William Allston and Mary Pyatt Allston, and their children included Dr. Samuel Gourdin (d. 1865) and Theodore Samuel Gourdin (1823-1861), a Charleston, S.C. attorney.

Scope and content: Papers consist of legal documents, correspondence, business papers, estate and property records, genealogical material, and other items. Included are the papers of Theodore Samuel Gourdin (1823-1861), the records of the law firm of Rutledge & Young, and a telegraphic code book of Gourdin, Matthiessen & Company.

Property records include a list (n.d.) of plats of family land grants in various counties of South Carolina; a deed (1777) of land along the PeeDee River (S.C.) to Ely Kershaw; a deed (1795) of land along the Wateree River (S.C.) to Samuel Boykin; and a plat (n.d.) of Pinckney family property in Charleston (S.C.).

Correspondence includes letters (1809-1852) to Eliza S. Courtney [Courtenay?] of Charleston (S.C.) from family and friends in Philadelphia (Pa.), Boston (Mass.), New York (N.Y.), and elsewhere regarding personal matters and family and social life; and correspondence of John Algernon Sidney Ashe (a Gourdin relative) with lawyer Thomas S. Grimké concerning the estate of his father John Ashe, with related documents.

Genealogical material (1727-1852) concerning the Gourdin family and related families includes clippings, copies of wills, notes, family Bible records, and other items.

Note: Many documents in damaged or fragile condition.
