Biographical/Historical Note: South Carolina family. Samuel Gaillard Stoney (1853-1926), a Charleston, S.C. businessman and plantation owner, married Louisa Cheves Smythe (1868-1939) in 1890. Their children included Samuel Gaillard Stoney (b. 1891) and Augustine Thomas Smythe Stoney (b. 1894). Louisa Cheves Smythe Stoney was the daughter of Louisa Rebecca McCord (1845-1928) and Augustine Thomas Smythe (1842-1914), a Charleston, S.C. attorney and South Carolina state Senator. Augustine Thomas Smythe (who added an "e" to the Smyth family name) married Louisa Rebecca McCord (1845-1928); he was the son of the Reverend Thomas Smyth (1808-1873) and Margaret Milligan Adger (1807-1884), daughter of merchant James Adger (1777-1858). Rev. Smyth's other children included James Adger Smyth (1837-1920).

Scope and Content: Papers consist of correspondence, financial records, writings, photographs, genealogical materials, papers pertaining to the Second Presbyterian Church (Charleston, S.C.) and the Charleston chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, and other items. Included are the papers of Augustine Thomas Smythe (1842-1914), James Adger Smyth (1837-1920), Thomas Smyth (1808-1873), A.T.S. Stoney (b. 1894), Louisa Cheves Stoney (1868-1939), the Adger family, and the Smyth family.

Genealogical materials (ca. 1920-1930's) include notes, correspondence, and other items collected by Susan Smythe Bennett and her mother Louisa McCord Smythe. Families represented include the Adger, Broughton, Calhoun, Cheves, Courtonne, Dulles, Ellison, Heatley, Langdon, Potts, Ragan, Russell, Smyth, Smythe, Sterling, Stoney, Sweringen, Turner, and Turquand families.
