

David D. Wallace papers, 1822-1967
SCHS 1261.00
Containers 28/356-445

Creator: Wallace, David Duncan, 1874-1951.
Clippard, Sophie Wallace.

Description: 35 linear ft.

Biographical/historical note: Columbia and Spartanburg, S.C. educator and historian.

Scope and content: Papers consist of research notes, correspondence, financial records, manuscripts and publications of Wallace's articles and other writings, family papers, and other items.

Research notes (handwritten and typed on half-sheets) are for Wallace's "History of South Carolina," "A Hundred Years of William Gregg and Graniteville," "Life of Martin Witherspoon Gary," and "History of Wofford College."

Correspondence includes a series of selected correspondence (1923-1951) of Wallace with historians and others which was removed from a larger series of his personal and professional letters (1922-1951) contained in the papers. Also included is his correspondence (1918-1922) while he was Chairman of the S.C. Board of Charities and Corrections. Family papers (1871-1965) include Wallace's correspondence with his wife Sophie W.A. Wallace and with his parents W.H. Wallace and Alice Wallace as well as his parents letters to each other. There is also correspondence of Sophie W.A. Wallace with her parents, her children and their families; and letters of Wallace's second wife Maud S. Orr. Papers (1822-1965) of the Adam, Fisher, Willis, Duncan, and Lomax families and related families consist of correspondence, financial and business records, scrapbooks, diaries, an album of cartes-de-visite, loose photographs, genealogical material, ephemera, clippings, and other items. Included are transcriptions of letters (1839-1851) of Mary E.D. Lomax of Abbeville (S.C.); and accounts (1822-1829) for students' tuition at Norfolk Academy.

Wallace's financial and investment records include receipts, invoices, accounts, and related correspondence. Other items include a clipping file; and reminiscences about Wallace by his daughter Sophie Clippard.

Note: Available on microfiche.
