

Webber genealogical notes, ca. 1910-ca. 1935
SCHS 422.00

Creator: Webber, Mabel L. (Mabel Louise), 1869-1941.

Description: 10.75 linear ft.

Biographical/historical note: Treasurer and secretary of the South Carolina Historical Society for 36 years, and editor of the South Carolina Historical and Genealogical Magazine. Ms. Webber was born on a plantation in Edgecombe County, North Carolina in 1869 and was the daughter of Charles Warren Webber and Sarah Almira Davis, both of Massachusetts. Charles Warren Webber served in the Union army during the Civil War. Webber came to Charleston in 1880 and attended public school for two years before enrolling in Mrs. J.A. Smith's Private School for girls. She graduated in 1889. From 1900 to 1905 Webber studied and worked as cataloguer for the Charleston Library Society. In 1905, Miss Webber succeeded A.S. Salley as the Secretary/Treasurer of the South Carolina Historical Society. By 1909, Webber had assumed editorial duties for the South Carolina Historical and Genealogical Magazine and maintained a standard of quality which held it in the front rank of historical magazines. Webber was also a prolific genealogist and in addition to her contributions to the SCHS, she also researched family history for the Daughters of the American Revolution, the United Daughters of the Confederacy and the Society of Colonial Dames.

Scope and content: Collection contains genealogical notes and research on numerous South Carolina families. Files are arranged alphabetically by surname.

Note: Also see SCHM 42 (1941) for biographical information on Mabel L. Webber.

Preferred citation: Webber, Mabel Louise, d. 1941. Webber genealogical notes, ca. 1910-ca. 1935. (422.00) South Carolina Historical Society.
