Arthur Ravenel, Jr. papers, 1838-2015
SCHS #: 0591.00

Description: 3 linear ft. (8 boxes)

Biographical/historical note: Arthur Ravenel, Jr., a businessman and politician from Charleston, S.C., was born in 1927. He attended St. Andrews High School and the College of Charleston, and from 1945 to 1946 he served in the U.S. Marine Corps. He began his political career as a Democrat in the S.C. House of Representatives, serving from 1953 to 1959. Soon afterward, he changed his party affiliation to Republican and ran for office in multiple elections, including a run for the governorship of South Carolina. He was elected to the S.C. Senate in 1980, where he served until winning election to the U.S. Congress in 1986, completing several terms in that office. In 1996, Ravenel was elected again to his old seat in the S.C. Senate, serving there until 2005. A new bridge that replaced the old bridges between Charleston and Mt. Pleasant in 2005 was named in his honor.

Scope and content: This collection consists of correspondence; papers relating to Confederate and French Huguenot heritage, Ravenel family history, and the Arthur Ravenel, Jr. Bridge; personal and political papers; papers of Rose Pringle Ravenel; photographs; and miscellaneous items. Correspondence includes letters to and from Arthur Ravenel during his service in the Marine Corps in 1945 and 1946. Papers relating to Confederate heritage include clippings, correspondence, speeches, miscellaneous items, dvds documenting Confederate Memorial Day services at the Huguenot Church in Charleston, and transcripts of diaries, one of which is "The Diary of a Wounded Prisoner" by Charles Bernard Foster of Summerville, S.C. Papers relating to Huguenot heritage include programs, clippings, by-laws of the church, historical writings, and books of liturgy and hymns. Papers relating to Ravenel family history include "Recollections" by Agnes Ravenel Gant, clippings, genealogies, correspondence, genealogies of the Boykin and Whitridge families, and records pertaining to a Ravenel family reunion in France in 2006. Papers relating to the Arthur Ravenel, Jr. Bridge include invitations, clippings, programs, histories, media, and memorabilia. Political papers include campaign literature, correspondence, clippings, and memorabilia. One group of papers (1964-1972) pertains to the restoration and sale of the Faber House in Charleston. Personal papers of Arthur Ravenel include school records, a scrapbook (1937), and clippings. Miscellaneous items include clippings about Hampton Plantation, and a notebook (1838-1848) kept by Rev. Elias Lynch Fraser, a Presbyterian minister, which includes copies of his correspondence. Papers of Rose Pringle Ravenel include a composition book and a scrapbook containing her writings as well as clippings, and sketches.

Artifacts include two medals awarded to William Davie DeSaussure and Sergeant Eldridge P. Alexander for their service in the Mexican War, and an antebellum silver spoon that belonged to William Ravenel.

NOTE: Photographs have been removed to the SCHS Visual Material Collection. Artifacts have been removed to the SCHS Artifact Collection.
