

SOUTH CAROLINA HISTORICAL SOCIETY

MITCHELL & DONAHUE RECORDS, 1922 – 2007 SCHS #0580.00

Description: 105 linear ft. (8 boxes + 34 flat file drawers)

Biographical/historical note:

Originally established by Albert Simons (1890-1980) and Samuel Lapham (1892-1972) as Simons & Lapham, this architectural firm continued under different partnerships and names, including Simons, Lapham & Mitchell (1955-1964); Simons, Lapham, Mitchell & Small; Simons, Mitchell, Small & Donahue; Mitchell, Small, Donahue & Logan; and Mitchell, Small & Donahue.

Scope and content:

This collection consists of the records of the architectural firm of Mitchell & Donahue in Charleston, S.C. (John M. Mitchell and Dennis Martin Donahue), as well as the records of its predecessors. Records principally consist of architectural drawings and plans of numerous residences and buildings mainly in Charleston and the Lowcountry including banks, churches, hotels, businesses, plantation houses, government buildings, schools, and camps. Notable building and renovation projects include the Old Exchange Building, dormitories and other buildings at the College of Charleston, the residence of Albert Simons (84 South Bay Street), buildings of the News & Courier newspaper, Porter-Gaud School, Baptist College, First National Bank of South Carolina, Walker, Evans & Cogswell buildings, Fenwick Hall, the Fireproof Building, the Dock Street Theatre, the Gibbes Art Gallery, Wando High School, the Christian Family Y, and Coburg Dairy. Project files sometimes include correspondence, photographs, and other records.

Note: Most photographs have been removed to visual material collection as VM 0580.00.
