

G.A. Follin correspondence, 1862-1864
SCHS 1026.00
Container

Creator: Follin, Gustavus A.

Description: 32 items.

Biographical/Historical Note: Soldier in the C.S.A. Adjutant & Inspector General's offices in Columbia and Charleston, South Carolina. Gustavus Augustus Follin (1842-1927) was the son of Gustavus Follin (1816-1883) and Marie Lodoiska Costamagna Follin (1818-1904).

Scope and Content: Includes original and typescript correspondence of Follin with his father, Gustavus Follin, Sr., and his mother, Marie "Loda" Follin concerning the Civil War in S.C. especially Charleston harbor, Morris Island, Fort Sumter, James Island, many references to the bombardment of Charleston, family matters, and other Civil War related topics.

Preferred Citation: Follin, Gustavus Augustus, 1842-1927. Letters, 1862-1864. (1026.00) South Carolina Historical Society.

Search terms:

Follin, Gustavus, 1818-1883.

Follin, Gustavus Augustus, 1842-1927.

Follin, Marie Lodoiska Costamagna, 1818-1904.

Fallon family.

Bombardment -- South Carolina -- Charleston.

Charleston (S.C.) -- History -- Civil War, 1861-1865 -- Sources.

Fort Sumter (Charleston, S.C.)

James Island (S.C.) -- History -- Sources.

Morris Island (S.C.) -- History -- Sources.

United States -- History -- Civil War, 1861-1865 -- Sources.

Container listing:

11/130/1-4 Follin, Gustavus A. Jr. 1842-1927

Civil War Letters. 1861-1864. 32 items

Soldier in the CSA Adjutant & Inspector General's offices in Columbia and Charleston. Original and typescript correspondence of GAF Jr., his father Gustavus A. Follin Sr. and his mother Marie "Lodo" Follin. Letters regarding the Civil War in SC, especially Charleston Harbor, Morris Island, Fort Sumter; James Island, much mention of Charleston, including bombing of the city, family matters, and much other material pertaining to the Civil War.