

Anne King Gregorie papers, 1793-1969
SCHS 1254.00
28/1-28

Creator: Gregorie, Anne King.

Description: 13 linear ft.

Biographical/Historical Note: South Carolina historian, educator, and editor. The daughter of Ferdinand Gregorie (1856-1928) and Anne Palmer Porcher Gregorie (1855-1918), she was born in Savannah, Ga. in 1887. In 1929 she received a doctorate in history from the University of South Carolina, and from 1936 to 1941 she was director of the South Carolina Division of the National Historical Records Survey. Dr. Gregorie died in 1960.

Scope and Content: Papers consist of correspondence, historical research and writings, diaries, speeches, and other items. Included are papers of Maria Louisa Porcher Wayne, Flora Belle Surles, and the Porcher, Palmer, and Gregorie families.

Correspondence (ca. 1893-1960) with family members, friends, colleagues, and others concerns personal and family matters, her education, employment, historical research and writings, financial affairs, and other matters. Included is Gregorie's professional correspondence (1949-1958) as editor of the South Carolina Historical Magazine. Correspondents include Ferdinand Gregory, Jr., R.L. Meriwether, H.G. Osteen, Samuel G. Stoney, Leah Townsend, and Mary Cotton Wisdom. Interspersed among the letters are memorabilia, printed materials, drawings, and other items.

Papers pertaining to her historical work include manuscripts of her "History of Sumter County," along with research notes, related correspondence, clippings, cemetery records, and photograph negatives; research correspondence and notes, maps, and illustrations for a biography of Thomas Sumter, as well as photostats of Sumter's correspondence; notes, correspondence, cemetery records, clippings, and photographs concerning Christ Church Parish (S.C.), as well as manuscripts of a parish history; manuscripts of articles for the Dictionary of American Biography, with related letters and research notes; correspondence and notes on South Carolina Chancery Court records, with transcriptions of court minutes (1721-1774) and abstracts of equity rolls (1721-1779); transcripts of correspondence of missionaries of the Society.

Diaries recording Gregorie's personal and professional activities cover the years 1913-1960. Speeches (1926-1957) mainly concern South Carolina history and government. Other items include papers pertaining to the League of Women Voters of South Carolina and Charleston County including correspondence and minutes of meetings (1951-1953); correspondence, minutes, and other items pertaining to the South Carolina Committee on Conservation of Cultural Resources (1942); college class notes; and recipes.
