

Motte Alston Read genealogical papers, ca. 1900-1920
SCHS 1170.00
Containers 12/227-312

Creator: Read, Motte Alston, 1872-1920

Description: Ca. 14 linear ft.

Note: Available on microfilm

Scope and content: Collection chiefly consists of notebooks containing systematic research on over 100 colonial South Carolina families, among them the Alston (and Allston), Ashe (and Ash), Boone, Godfrey, Jenkins, Jones, Ladson, Mathewes, Moore, Pritchard, Sanders (and Saunders), Seabrook, Smith, Stanyarne, and Yeamans families. There is additional research on hundreds of other South Carolina families, on Huguenots and Barbadians in South Carolina, families of St. Thomas Parish (Barbados?), early North Carolina and Virginia families, the families of Mallory and Batte (tracing lineages of the Magna Carta barons), the history of Johns Island (S.C.), and related subjects.

Also included is correspondence regarding the Moore, Smith, and Johnstone families. Correspondents include A.S. Salley, Jr., Charles E. Banks, and Miss E.E. Johnstone.

Preferred citation: Read, Motte Alston, 1872-1920. Motte Alston Read genealogical papers, ca. 1900-1920. (1170.00) South Carolina Historical Society.
