

Reverend Paul Turquand Sermon books, 1766-1783
SCHS 1155.00
Container 11/582

Creator: Turquand, Rev. Paul.

Description: 3 v.

Biographical/Historical Note: Paul Turquand, a descendant of Jean Baptiste Morin (1583-1656), emigrated from England to South Carolina. Turquand was a Protestant Episcopal priest and a South Carolina state representative.

Scope and Content: Sermons delivered by Turquand while rector of the Episcopal Church, St. Matthew's Parish.

Preferred Citation: Turquand, Paul, 1735-1786. Sermon books, 1766-1783. (1155.00) South Carolina Historical Society.

Note: Access restricted due to fragile condition (see archivist).

Search terms:

Turquand, Paul, 1735-1786 -- Sermons.
Church of England -- United States -- Clergy.
Church of England -- United States -- Sermons.
South Carolina -- History -- Sources.
Sermons.
Priests.

11/582/1-3 Turquand, Rev. Paul, 1735-1786

Sermon books. 1766-1783. 3 ms. vols.

Berkeley Co. Rector. Sermon books of speeches Turquand delivered while rector of the Episcopal Church, St. Matthew's Parish.