A.C. Balzano collection, 1703-1940 SCHS# 110.00

Creator: Balzano, A.C.

Description: 4 linear ft.

Scope and Content: This collection, consisting of more than 2,000 documents, is a portion of the documents concerning South Carolina history collected by Ned Balzano during his lifetime. The collection includes mostly unrelated documents dating as early as 1703 through 1940. It is arranged into four series: documents by material type, miscellaneous document types arranged chronologically, small collections, and oversized items.

Included are slave bills of sale; letters, including much Civil War correspondence; military records, most of which are Civil War administrative records such as ordnance inventories, Confederate Army field orders, unit rosters and payrolls, and records of weapons issue; and legal documents, including many documents of the South Carolina Court of Common Pleas and South Carolina Court of Chancery.

Documents by material type include billheads; broadsides; business cards; a sketchbook; circulars; a slave badge; and stock certificates. Miscellaneous documents include legal documents; negotiable instruments; property records; financial records; and citizenship papers. Small collections consist of 38 collections of documents generated by an individual, family, or organization. These include documents of H.D. Alexander, Elizabeth Johanna Bertorilli, Charleston (S.C.) Board of Health, Confederate States of America Quartermaster Dept., the Duc family, Dictator (Steamship), George A.
