Description: 12.75 linear ft. (26 boxes)

Biographical/Historical Note: The Pollitzer family of Charleston, S.C., included Gustave M. Pollitzer (1853-1909), cotton exporter with Sea Islands Cotton and active member of Congregation Beth Elohim's Board of Trustees; his wife, Clara Guinzburg (1854-1943?), daughter of Rev. Dr. Aaron and Caroline Kuh Guinzburg, a teacher who had emigrated from Prague 1848; their daughters, Anita Pollitzer (1894-1975), suffragist and advocate of the Equal Rights Amendment, and one of the founders of the National Woman's Party; Mabel Louis Pollitzer (1885-1979), Press Chairman of the South Carolina branch of the National Woman's Party, first to teach biology in the state of South Carolina, and started the first sex education programs in school; Carrie Pollitzer (1881-1974), member of Charleston's Federation of Women's Clubs Hall of Fame, facilitated the first medical examinations by pediatricians, introduced the first school lunch programs, and was instrumental in having the College of Charleston open admissions to women students and Richard Morris Pollitzer (1883-1969), Physician, Mason, and co-founder and second president of the South Carolina Pediatric Society.

Scope and Content: Papers consist of correspondence, writings, photographs, printed material, and other items. Included are the papers (1845-1968) of Gustave M. Pollitzer and Mabel Pollitzer (1871-ca. 1975).

Papers (1901-1975) of Anita Pollitzer reflect her personal life and career as an officer and chairman of the National Woman's Party. Records (1926-1948) of the National Woman's Party include reports, minutes of meetings, resolutions, press releases, photographs, and correspondence. Correspondence (1901-1972) of Anita Pollitzer as officer of the NWP with Alice Paul and many others concerns women's rights, suffrage, the ERA and other legislation, party activities and expenditures, and other matters. Printed material (ca. 1914-1969) consists of suffrage broadsides; music sheets; pamphlets; transcripts of Congressional hearings on the Equal Rights Amendment and other women's issues; and copies of "The Suffragist" (1918-1919), the NWP's "Equal Rights" (1923-1954), and "Equal Rights" (1935-1936) an independent feminist weekly.

Personal correspondence of Anita Pollitzer and Elie Edson with each other and family members in New York (N.Y.) and Charleston (S.C.) mainly concerns family matters and their careers. Other items include Anita Pollitzer's school notes and papers (ca. 1910-1933); clippings about her; and her writings on women's rights and Georgia O'Keeffe.

Pollitzer family papers include correspondence (1846-1979) of Gustave M. and Clara Pollitzer, Mabel Pollitzer, and Carrie Pollitzer with Anita Pollitzer, Elie Edson, and others regarding family matters, women's rights, the ERA in South Carolina, and other matters. Genealogical material on the Pollitzer, Guinzburg, and related families includes notes, family charts, and clippings. Photographs (ca. 1870-ca. 1965) are mainly of members of the Pollitzer, Kuh, and Guinzburg families and friends.

Papers (1904-1938) of Elie C. Edson include his school notes, essays, and exams (1904) as well as correspondence, photographs, press releases, clippings, and other material concerning his work as a press agent for the Wright Players (Ft. Wayne, Indiana), actress Blanche Yurka, and other individuals and organizations.

Note: The Pollitzer Family Papers and the Anita Pollitzer Papers were initially processed and cataloged separately. In February 2013 the process of consolidating these two collections was completed and they were worked into the existing collection. The boxes and folders were rehoused. The finding aid reflects the new organization of the collection. Most of the information contained in the following notes was compiled in 2013 and is offered as valuable background and context for the collection.

- 24/34/04-18 Anita Pollitzer and Elie Edson at Muir Woods, 1929. Verso: "To Mrs. Pollitzer: With love for her birthday, March 5th, 1930, we send this souvenir of one of our happiest days in California, when we played, as little children in fairy stories, alone in the Muir Woods, a glorious grove of Red Wood Trees – one thousand years old! Beneath our feet the dead leaves of many, many generations made a carpet of exquisite springy softness. The sunlight above could hardly find its way down to us through the thick foliage and so to get these photographs, we faced a long exposure of several minutes, scarcely daring to breathe! Elie."
