Westvaco Collection, 1763-2005 SCHS# 0607.00

Creator: Westvaco Corporation.

Description: 10 linear ft.

Scope and content: Collection consists of property records, or muniments, pertaining to lands ultimately acquired by the Westvaco Corporation in South Carolina, principally in the counties of Berkeley, Charleston, Colleton, Dorchester, and Georgetown. The records include deeds of conveyance, title abstracts, plats, grants, and related correspondence. Four bound volumes contain abstracts of title to various properties in Berkeley County and Dorchester County which were purchased by the Cooper River Timber Company from J. F. Prettyman and Sons, prepared by Legare Walker, 1929. Some of the plantations named in the documents include Belle Isle, Hope, Spring Grove, Mount Pleasant, Savannah (or Savanna), Somers Hall, Jericho, Federal Hall, Pon Pon, Cedar Grove, Sycamore, Travelers Rest, Cooks Hill, and Beech Hill. Some genealogical information is included on individuals including William Cree, Thomas Bone, and Elizabeth Bowman, as well as the families of Cadden, Patrick, and Nettles. Some of the principal landowners named include Henry A. M. Smith, Richard H. Hiers, William L. Bradley, the Charleston Mining & Manufacturing Company, E. P. Burton Lumber Company, A. W. Taylor Land & Lumber Company, South Carolina Land & Lumber Company, Cooper River Timber Company, Ashepoo Mining & Manufacturing Company, J. F. Prettyman & Sons, and the Flack-Jones Lumber Company.

Biographical/Historical note: The Piedmont Pulp and Paper Company was established in 1888 in West Virginia, and after expansion, changed its name to the West Virginia Pulp and Paper Company, acquiring timberlands and mills in Pennsylvania, New York, Virginia, the Carolinas, and elsewhere. The West Virginia Pulp and Paper Company changed its name to Westvaco Corporation in 1969. Westvaco produced pulp and paper products and specialty chemicals derived from these processes. In 2002, Westvaco merged with the Mead Corporation of Dayton, Ohio, to form MeadWestvaco. Since that time the company has sold much of their timberland property.

Box 1

Property acquisition files: this series is largely in original order and retains the original alphanumerical designations and descriptions for each file. For each group of records, there is often a note referring to a related abstract of title in the Legare Walker title abstract books (in boxes 8-10).

- 1 CTN 1, Historical Documents: deed of conveyance, 1877, of a plantation or tract in Georgetown County on "Sampit creek or River." Tract contains 500 acres and was "known by the name of Richmond." Sold by Magdalene A. Gorman and other Gorman family members, to Magdaline A. Hutson and children.
- 2 CTN 1, Historical Documents: property records, 1839-1910, pertaining to adjoining tracts in Dorchester County (formerly Colleton District, and then Colleton County). Persons named in the documents include Louis Caddeau, Redding A. Caddeau, J. Lamb Perry, Elias B. Scott, Archibald S. J. Perry, Richard Stobo Bedon, George Washington Raysor, Benjamin Perry, Mary Perry (a free person of color) and her children, Peter Coburn, and Joseph Ioor Waring. A sales agreement, 1844, between the heirs of Daniel Blake and Richard S. Bedon refers to a tract known as "Blake's Land, situate partly in the parish of St. Paul's, and partly in the parish of St. George's Dorchester...lying on both sides of the public road, called Beach Hill Road” (and a note penciled in calls it “Beach Hill tract”). A conveyance of 1859 names a tract called Hope Plantation in St. Paul’s Parish, Colleton District. A sheriff’s title of 1878 refers to a property called Beach Forest.

- 3 CTN 2BT3, Historical Documents: property records, 1903-1905, relating to a tract or tracts in Dorchester County. Persons named include John C. Mitchell, Henrietta [T.] Colcock, Frederick Newton, and Peter B. Bradley.
- 4 CTN 2BT 36, Historical Documents: property records, 1839-1858, pertaining to a tract or tracts in St. Paul’s Parish, Colleton District. The earliest document is a title to land “known as Bonneaus’ Hill,” sold by Thomas W. Boone to John W. Sommers. A conveyance in fee, 1852, refers to the estate of Edward Tonge (“late of Saint Paul’s Parish”), and the property name “Tongeville” is penciled on the document. A grant to Alfred Willis, 1858, of acreage in St. Paul’s Parish “on Beach Hill on Wolf Castle Bay,” is accompanied by a plat.
- 5 GTN 3, Historical Documents: plat, 1875, of 63 acres in Georgetown County “on the south side of Kilsock Bay surveyed by request of R. H. Collins for Fortune Edward.”
- 6 GTN 4A, Historical Documents: two conveyances relating to land in Georgetown County. The first, dated 1883, conveys 100 acres “on Caney Gully,” sold by Micajah Wiggins to D. J. Brown. The second, dated 1884, conveys 113 acres, sold by Thomas Wiggins to Thomas Boatright [Boatwright?].
- 7 GTN 4B, Historical Documents: plats, 1846-1904, of Georgetown District (and County) properties. The earliest, dated 1846, depicts 2850 acres on “Wadbecan Creek” [Wadmacon Creek?] surveyed for W. H. A. DeSaussure. An 1885 plat shows 183 acres belonging to the estate of Stephen Morris. Another plat, 1904, represents 321 acres surveyed for Thomas A. Boatright.
- 8 GTN 4C, Historical Documents: title, 1910, to properties in Georgetown County, sold by Joseph Sessions (attorney for Thomas S. Sessions) to D. J. Bourne.
- 9 GTN 5, Historical Documents: property records pertaining to 513 acres in Georgetown County located on the north side of the Santee River and formerly owned by Seaman Deas, bankrupt, and acquired by Benjamin D. Bourne. These include a conveyance and mortgage (both dated 1868). A conveyance of 1874 documents that Benjamin D. Bourne later sold the land to D. J. Bourne.
- 10 CTN 6, Historical Documents: property records, 1869-1897, relating to a tract of 1066 acres in Colleton County “formerly the property of Josiah Isaac Perry.” Other persons named in the documents include Edward L. Clark, John Rodgers, Thomas B. Wattson, and Richard C. McMurtrie. A title dated 1882, Anne M. Felder to Anne M. Murdough, to a property known as “Simons Hall and Hacketts Hill Tract” may be out of place in this file.

- 11 GTN 9, Historical Documents: property records, 1889-1903, relating to tracts in Georgetown County and Williamsburg County. A plat dated 1889 shows land “on Boggy Swamp” in Georgetown County surveyed for Joseph Newberry. Other persons named include James Harper, A. C. Neathery, J. H. Hutson, and J. J. Graham.
- 12 CTN 9, Historical Documents: deed of conveyance, 1847, for 380 acres in St. Paul’s Parish, Colleton District, sold by C. W. C. Snipes to George Newton. Includes a renunciation of dower (dated 1850) by Susanna (or Susan) Snipes.
- 13 CTN 12, Historical Documents: property records, 1857-1890, relating to properties in Colleton County. A conveyance of two plantations, Sandy Hill and Johnston’s (sold by Margaret M. Lowndes, James A. Strobhart, Harriet M. Washington, William H. Peronneau, and others, to James B. Campbell) is dated 1857. An undated title abstract traces the ownership of Buck Hall and Good Hope plantations in St. Paul’s Parish. Two titles (1885, 1886) granted by the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund convey ownership of acreage in Collins Township to Henry A. M. Smith and the estate of James B. Campbell. Two master’s title dated 1886 and 1890 refer to three plantations formerly owned by William Washington (Sandy Hill, Indian House, and Drayton’s Cowpen), and plantations known as Mount Pleasant and Golden Grove.
- 14 CTN 12, Johnston Tract: property records, 1858-1892, include a title, 1858, to a plantation called Johnston’s, conveyed by James B. Campbell to Edward Caler. Also included is a plat of the property, 1885. Other persons named in the documents include W. A. Dipple, Benjamin Sauls, John R. Hiott, James Givens, and Henry A. M. Smith.
- 15 CTN 12, Sandy Hill: see CTN 12-15 in oversize materials. This tract is listed in the title abstract book, volume 1, page 112.
- 16 CTN 12, Blue House Tract: property records and correspondence, 1810-1892, relating to the Blue House Tract in St. Paul’s Parish. The earliest document, 1810, is a mortgage by General William Washington. Other persons named in other documents include William H. Dean, C. Baring Farmer, and Henry A. M. Smith. Also included is a “genealogical tree” pertaining to a number of persons including William Cree, Thomas Bone, Mary Bone, and Elizabeth Bowman.
- 17 CTN 12, Cherry Hill Tract: a master’s title, 1895, conveying land in Colleton County to Julian Mitchell, Jr.

- 18 CTN 12, Good Hope and Hyde Park: a title, 1900, James White to Henry A. M. Smith, of the two tracts, with a plat; and a legal document (with plat), 1904, pertaining to the division and partition of lands in the case of Henry A. M. Smith v. Reveillee White et al.
- 19 CTN 12, Spring Grove: correspondence, notes, and a plat relating to Spring Grove, a rice plantation in St. Paul's Parish. A letter from attorney J. C. DeTreville to Henry A. M. Smith includes a clipping relating to the case of Louis Bailey and Mary Bailey v. Sarah Prioleau. The plat, dated 1793, is in the oversize materials, as CTN 12-19.
- 20 CTN 12, Cadden Tract: property records and correspondence, 1850-1925, relating to land in Adams Run Township owned by Redden Cadden. Includes plats (1850; 1893), and some genealogical information on the Cadden family.
- 21 CTN 12, Wilderness Tract: property records and correspondence, 1886-1896, relating to the "Wilderness Tract" in Adams Run Township. Persons named in the documents include Harriett M. Venning, John J. Martin, Thomas M. Peeples, and Henry A. M. Smith.
- 22 CTN 12, Mount Pleasant Tract, et al.: property records, 1763-1858, pertaining to Mount Pleasant Plantation in St. Paul's Parish, which consisted of plantations or tracts known as Fair Spring, Bristol, Mount Pleasant, and New Ground. A number of these records are located in the oversize materials as CTN 12-22. Persons named in the documents include James B. Campbell, Joseph Perry, Thomas Ferguson, John Logan, John Boyle, and Daniel G. Joye
- 23 CTN 12, Savannah Tract: correspondence and property records, 1874-1911, including plats and an abstract of title, relating to Savannah (or Savanna) Plantation on Caw Caw Swamp in St. Paul's Parish, Colleton County. Other parties named in the documents include Benjamin Perry, Dr. Cornelius DuPont, William G. Forsythe, Ellen H. Vermilye, and the E. P. Burton Lumber Company.
- 2 SW 765, Flack Jones: This large collection of documents (dating overall 1838-2005), which was somewhat disorganized (and therefore not organized here in original order), principally pertains to a number of properties located in the counties of Colleton and Berkeley, including several tracts owned by the estate of R. (Richard) H. Hiers, Belle Isle Plantation, and Cooks Hill Plantation. The first folder consists of property records, 1893-1915, relating to R. H. Hiers properties, including a deed of conveyance, 1904, J. W. Crosby to R. H. Hiers, of land in Colleton County; a plat, 1893, of 50 acres on Bear Branch in Colleton County; a plat, 1904, of 31 acres in Colleton County surveyed for R. H. Hiers; and a deed of conveyance, A[quilla] R. Hiers to R. H. Hiers, of 31 acres in Colleton County. Other persons named in these documents include Ann Griffis, Lovey (or Lovie) Warren, and N. W. Warren. A note among these papers indicates that some of the deeds relate to Hiers properties “not acquired by Westvaco.”
- 3 SW765, Flack Jones: This folder chiefly contains earlier property records, 1838-1893, which appear to pertain to properties owned by members of the Hiers family. Included is a grant, 1838, to David Smoke (Smoak?), of 671 acres in Colleton District; a plat, 1838, of 671 acres in St. Bartholomew's Parish, Colleton District, surveyed for David Smoke; a plat, 1852, of 52 acres owned by Philip J. Hiers (Hiers), surveyed for Sarah H. Stokes; a conveyance, 1853, P. J. Hiers to Archibald Provo, of 89 acres on the Edisto River, Colleton District; a deed of conveyance, 1850, Philip J. Hiers to Archibald Provaux, of a tract on the Edisto River; a deed, 1861, Mariah Spell to G. W. Hiers, of 52 acres in Colleton District "near Buckhead"; and a conveyance, 1871, G. P. Lott to Archibald Proveau, of 40 acres in Colleton County. Other persons named in these documents include Perry Kinard, Lawrence Kinsey, David M. Proveau, Hannah Simmons, J. R. Stokes, and G. W. Raysor.

- 4 SW765, Flack Jones: This folder contains more property records, 1890-1955, as well as correspondence, apparently pertaining to properties owned at one time by R. H. Hiers and other Hiers family members. Included is a plat, 1890, of 95 acres in Colleton County surveyed for William Smoak; and a conveyance, 1915, E. H. Brown to R. H. Hiers of 45 acres in Colleton County. Other persons named in the documents include J. L. Smoak, Adam Simmons, L. G. Owens, J. A. Carroll, Bertha Smoak, and Irene S. Miley.
- 5 SW765, Flack Jones: property records, 1903-1955, relating to Belle Isle Plantation, which was owned by William P. Gourdin and conveyed to the Flack-Jones Lumber Company, including a deed, 1903, Freeman S. Farr to J. K. Gourdin, of a tract known as Belle Isle Plantation in Berkeley County containing 2394 acres.
- 6 SW765, Flack Jones: property records and correspondence, 1953-2005, pertaining to properties acquired by the Flack-Jones Lumber Company and later acquired by Westvaco Corporation, including Belle Isle Plantation, properties conveyed by R. H. Hiers and the Sanders family, and the Rickenbaker tract. Included is an abstract and opinion, 1955, relating to lands in Colleton County, including the Home Place Tract (R. H. Hiers), the Sweetwine Brown Tract, the Mitchum Tract, the Minus or Stokes Tract, and the Miley Tract. Oversize plats from this folder are with the oversize materials as SW765 -06 OvrSz.
- 7 SW765, Flack Jones: property records and correspondence, 1959-1995, relating to lands acquired by Westvaco Corporation in the counties of Berkeley and Colleton including Cooks Hill Plantation and Beech Hill. Oversize plats from this group are with the oversize material as SW765-07 OvrSz.
- 8 SW765, Flack Jones: property and financial records, 1967-1973, relating to lands in Colleton County and Berkeley County owned by Flack-Jones Lumber Company and conveyed to Westvaco Corporation.
- 9 SW765, Flack Jones: records and plats, 1953-2004, relating to a boundary dispute involving the "Hiers Tract" and "Rhodes Unit."

- 10 SW765, Flack Jones: plats and other records, 1911-1986 (mostly copies), relating to the surveying of lands acquired by Westvaco Corporation. Oversize plats are with the oversize materials.
