

SOUTH CAROLINA HISTORICAL SOCIETY

South Carolina Society records, 1790-1890 SCHS# 1123.00

Creator: South Carolina Society.

Description: 17 items.

Biographical/Historical Note: Social and charitable society officially organized in Charleston, S.C. in 1737.

Scope and Content: Records consist of financial records and other items.

Financial records include a "Schedule of the Stock belonging to the South Carolina Society Easter 1790"; an account (1836) with Mortimer Calvert for bricks, cement, and other building supplies and wages for workers; an account (1813-1821) with Peter Trezevant; a schedule (1828) of bonds and other properties of the South Carolina Society; a promissory note (1870); a statement of income and expenditures (1861); arrear lists (1884, 1885, 1887, 1888, 1889); and payment due notices.

Other items consist of a lease (1883) of South Carolina Society property on Meeting Street in Charleston (S.C.) to Charles U. Shepard (probably Charles U. Shepard, Jr., son of Charles Upham Shepard, Sr., who died in 1886); and a treasurer's bond (1834) of William A. Hayne.
