

White House Plantation letters, 1871-1898

SCHS 1143.00

Container 11/549

Creator: Aimar, Charles Pons.

Description: 110 items.

Biographical/Historical Note: Part-owner, with his brother G.W. Aimar, of White House Plantation on the Toogoodoo River.

Scope and Content: Letters to Charles P. and G. W. Aimar of Charleston from the managers and tenants of White House Plantation (in what is now Charleston County, S.C.) concerning supplies, progress of crops, cotton, corn, seed, tools, livestock, and other matters. Letters from plantation managers William W. Clement, Arthur E. Hilson, Robert V. Royall, John C. Wilson, R.M. Allston, and others. Colleton County tax bills and documents (1877, 1878) relating to the Aimars' "Home Place" on Toogoodoo Creek.

Preferred Citation: Aimar, Charles Pons, 1826-1905. White House Plantation letters, 1871-1898. (1143.00) South Carolina Historical Society.

Search terms:

Aimar, Charles Pons, 1826-1905.

Aimar, G. W.

Allston, R.M.

Clement, William W.

Hilson, Arthur E.

Royall, Robert V.

Wilson, John C., fl. 1871.

Agricultural implements -- South Carolina -- Charleston County.

Agriculture -- South Carolina -- Charleston County.

Cotton -- South Carolina -- Charleston County.

Livestock -- South Carolina -- Charleston County.

Plantations -- South Carolina -- Charleston County.

Tenant farmers -- South Carolina -- Charleston County.

Charleston County (S.C.)

Colleton County (S.C.)

Home Place (Plantation : Charleston County, S.C.)

White House Plantation (Charleston County, S.C.)

Letters (correspondence)

Container list:

11/549/1-4 Whitehouse Plantation, Colleton Co. 1871-1898

Letters, 1871-1898. Approx 160 items.

Colleton Co. plantation. Letters to Charles Pons & G.W. Aimar, Charleston from managers and tenants of Whitehouse Plantation, including William W. Clement, Arthur E. Hilson, Robert V. Royall, John C. Wilson, R.M. Allston and others. Letters regarding plantation crops, cotton, corn, seed, tools, livestock, progress of crops, supplies, and other matters.