Photographs from the Robert B. Cuthbert Research Papers, 1959-2017 SCHS# 0635.00 VM

Description: 0.5 linear ft. (1 box)

Biographical/Historical note: Robert Barnwell Cuthbert, a native of Summerville, S.C., was a staff member of the U.S. Vegetable Laboratory in Charleston for more than forty years. He was the editor of Flat Rock of the Old Time, and the co-editor of Northern Money, Southern Land. He was a member of the South Carolina Historical Society, and spent many years researching Lowcountry planter families, their plantations, and their connections with Flat Rock, North Carolina. He was born in 1934 and passed away in December 2021.

Scope and content: This collection chiefly consists of photographs relating to Robert B. Cuthbert's research for his two books, Flat Rock of the Old Time and Northern Money, Southern Land. It includes images of numerous South Carolina plantations as well as places in North Carolina, principally Flat Rock. There are also photographs of Robert B. Cuthbert and images pertaining to the USDA Vegetable Lab in Charleston, and Clemson University.
