Creator: Broughton family

Description: 0.5 linear ft.

Scope and content: Papers consist of estate records, wills, property records, receipts, legal documents, slave records, and other items chiefly pertaining to the Broughton and Sanders families.

Estate records, including inventories, appraisements, accounts, receipts, wills, and other items, are for Joseph Sanders, a St. Bartholomew Parish planter (1764-1773); William Sanders (1775-1784); Ann Sanders (1786); Lawrence Sanders, a St. Paul's Parish planter (1789-1807); and Ann Broughton (1833-1836). Included are copies of the wills of Ann Broughton (1788); Peter Broughton of St. John's Berkeley Parish (1768); Andrew Broughton of St. George Dorchester Parish (1779); Nathaniel Broughton (1794); Elizabeth Damaris Broughton of St. John's Berkeley Parish (1835); Philip Porcher Broughton of St. John's Berkeley Parish (1822); Thomas Broughton of Mulberry Plantation (1808); Elizabeth Jane Ravenel (1802); and Daniel Ravenel (1774). Numerous slaves and plantations are named as bequests in wills.

Property records include a conveyance (1713) of land in old Berkeley County sold by Isaac Porcher to William Steed; a release (1734) of land in "St. George's Parish" from William Sanders to John Stevens; a lease (1760, oversized) of a plantation in "St. George's Parish", William Sanders to Charles Strother; release (1768) of 1500 acres in old Berkeley County, Elizabeth Woolford to William Sanders; conveyance (1818) from Dempsey Collins to James Daingerfield of a plantation on Blacktom Bay at Goose Creek; conveyance (1824) of a plantation in St. John's Berkeley Parish, sold by Ann Crandal to Anne Frances, a freewoman; a conveyance (1835) of Fairfield Plantation in St. John's Berkeley Parish, sold by William H. McCall to Zechariah Norwood; and survey plats (1717-1837, mostly copies) of land in Berkeley County.

Receipts include two receipts (1772) for quit-rent due on Berkeley County land; receipt books of Ann Sanders (1776-1786), Lawrence Sanders (1760-1775, 1781-1789), and Ann Broughton (1789-1810); and receipts (1827-1830) of Daniel and Alexander Broughton. Slave records include several slave bills of sale (1784-1836). Other items include a marriage settlement (1760) of William Sanders and Ann Broughton (d. 1786); correspondence (1782-1794) of Lawrence Sanders and [Ann] Broughton mainly regarding legal and financial matters; and notes (ca. 1835?) on the Broughton family and Mulberry Plantation.
