

SOUTH CAROLINA HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Title abstract and plat books, 1854-ca. 1960 SCHS # 400.00

Description: 97 volumes + 2.5 linear feet (4 boxes)

Creator: Buist, Moore, Smythe, & McGee (Charleston, S.C.)

Biographical/Historical Note: Buist, Moore, Smythe & McGee, a general practice law firm in Charleston, S.C., had its beginnings in 1827 with Richard Yeadon and Charles MacBeth. MacBeth formed a partnership with Henry Buist to form MacBeth & Buist. Shortly after the Civil War, this firm became Buist & Buist. The firm of Smythe & Smythe (successor to Smythe, Lee & Frost) merged with Buist & Buist in 1962. Buist, Buist, Smythe & Smythe became the firm of Buist, Moore, Smythe & McGee with the merger of Moore, Mouzon & McGee, a practice founded in 1939. Buist, Moore, Smythe, & McGee merged with Womble, Carlyle, Sandridge, & Rice in 2011.

Scope and Content: Ninety-seven bound volumes (1854-1960) contain abstracts of title for properties in downtown Charleston (S.C.) and Charleston County, and to a lesser extent, properties in Beaufort, Colleton, Dorchester, Jasper, Williamsburg, Georgetown, Florence, and Berkeley counties of South Carolina. Charleston County properties include plantations and other real estate in St. Andrews Parish, North Charleston, Sullivan's Island, James Island, Johns Island, Edisto Island, Kiawah Island, Maryville, Isle of Palms, and Folly Beach. Early volumes are handwritten, and later ones (beginning in volumes dating from the mid-1880s) are mainly typescript or typewritten carbon copies, usually with handwritten indexes to the names of persons, places, organizations, and businesses. Plats, correspondence, and other related documents have been interleaved into the books. A card index to all the volumes is indexed mainly by Charleston street names and by names of counties, parishes, towns, subdivisions, islands, and plantations.

Two metal rod binders contained additional title abstracts of the law firm of Smythe & Smythe. These documents have been disbound and boxed separately. They represent properties in Charleston County and statewide. The first Smythe & Smythe book (1934) mainly covers properties in the city of Charleston and immediate areas.

Three oversized volumes (ca. 1914-1960s) contain plats of properties mainly in the Charleston area. These have been disbound and cataloged as Buist, Moore, Smythe, and McGee plat books, 34/815 Oversize.

Preferred citation: Buist, Moore, Smythe & McGee (Charleston, S.C.). Title abstract and plat books, 1854-ca. 1960. (400.00) South Carolina Historical Society.
